Konu: Marketplace for investment decision makers

Dear Mustafa Saraçoz,

We are pleased to invite your Chamber to participate as an exhibitor at the Investment Management Exhibition (IME) scheduled for 13-15 May 2015 at Zurich Exhibition Center. Along with this invitation, you will find the application documentation for exhibitors.

IME is a marketplace for investment decision makers and is a unique platform for bringing together entrepreneurs, governments, investors and financiers. Typical IME visitors are interested in investment opportunities.

Companies, ministries, agencies for attracting foreign direct investment, and agencies for investment promotion and export will present concrete projects for investors in various attractive fields: mineral resources, energy projects, real estate, agribusiness, IT, construction, tourism, hotels and leisure (investing on the Riviera, marinas and ski resorts) and green economy.

- A range of dynamic projects will be introduced within this specially-designed event to assist you in finding the best possible investment opportunity.
- IME is an opportunity as well to market your real estate projects and benefit from networking with a selected group of public and private decision-makers.
- It is an excellent opportunity to see multiple projects and financial services under one roof before making your buying decisions.
- Meet professional property consultants and business brokers.

Who will exhibit?

Ministries of Economy, Finance, Energy, Mining, Tourism, Agriculture and Education

Agencies for export, public relations, procurement and promoting foreign investment

Local government: cantons, prefectures, municipalities, urban planners

Economic zones: duty-free zones, cross-border industrial parks, location marketing agencies

Banks and insurance: central banks, investment banks, microfinance Institutions

Financial markets: stock exchanges

Funds: investment funds, saving funds, hedge funds, pension funds, investment clubs

Companies: corporations, listed joint stock companies, property investment companies, investment consulting agencies, auditing companies, facility management companies, energy generators, green energy and energy distribution companies, oil and gas, mining and metals, insurance and asset management, telecommunications and IT

Business associations: chambers of commerce, industry associations, financial and insurance associations.

Each Country will present as well:

- Market and industry reports

- Business and tax law information
- Customs and tariff conditions
- International project notifications
- Calls for tender and business contacts
- Practical business information

Chambers' Business Network pavilion at IME: showcase your organisation at the place where decisions are made.

Chambers of Commerce, insurance associations and financial and other business associations will represent the interests of their members, as well as their project opportunities. They will seek to link with potential investors, offering them direct support and using the Exhibition to expand their network for improved future performance.

Exhibition IME would like to offer to your chamber a free possibility to expose your news magazine at the press center point where all meetings from vip people and medias will take place. At the same time we would kindly ask you if possible to distribute this information to your member's network.

Now is the right time to secure your participation at this unique venue where investment decisions are made; send us the application form for exhibitors!

Should you have any questions or requests, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to receiving your application!

Yours sincerely,

Bekim Xhafa
